Dear Parents,

RE: Possible Disruption in the Kentish Town Area.

We received information from the police this afternoon stating that a large gathering of young people may occur for the purposes of disruption. We informed all parents as a precaution as you may be out in the local community after school. All local schools have been informed. The police have been very reassuring and are raising their presence in the local area. The Safer Neighbourhood Team has asked me to circulate the following information:

Reporting incident of ASB is so important please don't stop calling the police and emailing us here at Camden Community Safety HUB:

Please report any anti-social behaviour or crime you witness, as this will assist the police and council gather evidence. Information will be treated as confidential and can be provided anonymously.
