1. Aims

This policy aims to:

- Provide a consistent approach to behaviour management
- Define what we consider to be unacceptable behaviour, including bullying
- Outline how pupils are expected to behave
- Summarise the roles and responsibilities of different people in the school community with regards to behaviour management
- Outline our system of rewards and sanctions

This policy should be read in conjunction with the school's Anti-Bullying and Inclusion policies. We have written our policy so that all of us - teachers, parents, teaching assistants, midday meals supervisors, carers, the children, and children's escorts can work together to improve behaviour attitudes and standards of work. Effective teaching and learning take place by understanding children's rights and responsibilities so that our school community understand fair consequences for any actions.

Our policy explains expectations and the ways we work together to achieve our aims outlined in the Mission and Vision Statements as well as the Home School Agreement and the unity between home and school if we are to succeed.

We follow UNICEF's principles of a Rights-Respecting School (RRS), based on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), where each member of the school community has rights and rights-respecting actions (RRA). Each class has a 'class charter', the aim of which is to promote rights and RRA so that everyone can work together in an effective and considerate way.

This policy is also underpinned by the key Christian values that we as a school feel are an important part of our school's distinctive Christian nature. The concept of forgiveness is important when reflecting on behaviour and forms a central part of our approach to developing positive behaviour.

"Always treat others as you would like them to treat you" Matthew 7:12

"Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those that trespass against us"-The Lord's Prayer.

2. Legislation and statutory requirements

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Behaviour and discipline in schools
- Searching, screening and confiscation at school
- The Equality Act 2010
- Use of reasonable force in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school

It is also based on the special educational needs and disability (SEND) code of practice.

In addition, this policy is based on:

- Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, which outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of its pupils
- Sections 88-94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which require schools to regulate pupils' behaviour and publish a behaviour policy and written statement of behaviour principles, and give schools the authority to confiscate pupils' property
- DfE guidance explaining that maintained schools should publish their behaviour policy online

3. Definitions

Misbehaviour is defined as:

- Disruption in lessons, in corridors between lessons, and at break and lunchtimes
- Non-completion of classwork or homework (including online learning)
- Poor attitude
- Deliberately ignoring instructions from school staff.

Serious misbehaviour is defined as:

- Repeated breaches of the school rules
- Any form of bullying (including online)
- Sexual assault, including any unwanted sexual behaviour that causes humiliation, pain, fear or intimidation (including online)
- Physical, Sexual or verbal assault of a pupil or a member of staff
- Vandalism
- Theft
- Fighting
- Racist, sexist, homophobic or any discriminatory behaviour (including online)
- Possession of any prohibited items. These are:
 - Knives or weapons
 - Alcohol
 - Illegal drugs
 - Stolen items
 - Tobacco and cigarette papers
 - Fireworks
 - Pornographic images (including online)
 - Any article a staff member reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to the property of, any person (including the pupil).

See Appendix 1 for a full list of the stages of behaviour.

4. Bullying, Sexual Violence and Harrassment

Bullying is defined as the repetitive, intentional harming of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power.

Bullying is, therefore:

- Deliberately hurtful
- Repeated, often over a period of time
- Difficult to defend against
- Can occur in person or online

Bullying can include:

Type of bullying	Definition
Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting
Physical	Hitting, kicking, pushing, taking another's belongings, any use of violence
Racial	Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
Sexual	Explicit sexual remarks, sexism, display of sexual material, sexual gestures, unwanted physical attention, sexual violence, comments about sexual reputation or performance, or inappropriate touching
Direct or indirect verbal	Name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
Cyber-bullying	Bullying that takes place online, such as through social networking sites, messaging apps or gaming sites

Details of our school's approach to preventing and addressing bullying are set out in our antibullying policy.

Peer on Peer Sexual Violence, Abuse and Harassment.

Definitions:

Sexual violence means rape, assault by penetration, or sexual assault (intentional sexual touching).

Sexual harassment means unwanted conduct of a sexual nature – such as sexual comments, sexual jokes or taunting, physical behaviour like interfering with clothes, or online harassment such as sexting.

This can take many forms, such as:

- Abuse in intimate personal relationships between peers
- Sexual violence and sexual harassment
- Upskirting, which involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without their permission to obtain sexual gratification or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm
- Sexting, which covers both consensual and non-consensual sharing of nude and semi-nude images and/or videos
- Causing someone to engage in sexual activity without consent, such as forcing them to strip, touch themselves sexually or engage in sexual activity with a third party

The following diagram is useful in understanding the hierarchy of sexual violence.

For a full list of behaviours that count as peer-on-peer abuse in paragraph 49 of Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSIE) 2021.

Reporting and Responding to Reported Incidents. (See Child Protection Policy)

Any reported incident of sexual violence, abuse or harassment will be taken extremely seriously. Staff should report concerns to a member of SLT as soon as they become aware of them and these concerns should be recorded on the My Concern software.

Where there's been a report of sexual violence, the DSL (or a deputy) should make an immediate risk and needs assessment, considering:

- The victim, especially their protection and support
- Whether there may have been other victims
- The alleged perpetrator(s)
- All other children at the school (and adult students and staff, if appropriate), especially any actions that are appropriate to protect them

Risk Assesments

Where there's been a report of sexual harassment, the need for a risk assessment should be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Record these risk assessments and keep them under review.

The risk assessment will inform whether staff need to:

- Manage the incident internally
- Refer to early help
- Refer to children's social care
- Report to the police

The DSL (or a deputy) should engage with children's social care and specialist services as required:

Where there's been a report of sexual violence, your risk assessment will likely need input from social workers or sexual violence specialists within your local multi-agency safeguarding team (MAST)

Use any MAST assessments to inform your school's approach and update your own risk assessment accordingly.

Zero Tolerance

The school has a zero tolerance approach to the sexual violence and harassment. Even low level behaviours will not be accepted or tolerated as this can contributed to the creation of a culture where sexual violence is allowed and accepted. Staff are aware that victim blaming can also contribute to the creation of such a culture and are trained in how to challenge children who behave inappropriately.

The school's response will therefore be:

- Proportionate
- Considered
- Supportive
- Decided on a case-by-case basis

As we are working with primary age children, the school will take an educational approach to supporting children who perpetrate such behavior and not a purely punitive approach. Often children are imitating behaviours that they have seen with very little awareness of how inappropriate it is.

Reporting Concerns.

Staff must report concerns to a member of the Senior Leadership Team as soon as they become aware of any incident of sexual misconduct. Due to a wider societal culture of victim blaming, pupils may be afraid of how reporting incidents of abuse and harassment reflects on them. Creating a culture and ethos of respect, tolerance, acceptance and diversity makes it easier for pupils to call out incidents and harder for anyone to get away with sexist or inappropriate sexual behaviour. Children in our school are taught how to report incidents and are actively encouraged to do so. This is always framed within the UNCRC and children are actively taught their rights as a way of empowering them to keep themselves safe.

Reporting incidents benefits everyone, including:

- The victim(s): by stopping the problem and getting the help and support they need
- Other people: by preventing it happening to someone else
- The alleged perpetrator(s): catching problematic behaviour early can help them avoid criminal offences later in life

Promoting appropriate sexual behaviours.

As well as focusing on what's inappropriate, help pupils to understand what good and healthy sexual behaviour means.

Your RSE/RHE curriculum will cover important areas such as:

- Consent
- What respectful behaviour looks like
- Body confidence and self-esteem
- Healthy relationships

Sometimes when pupils demonstrate harmful sexual behaviour (HSB) towards one another, it's because they're communicating their own experience of abuse.

Offering the child a safe space to explain what may have happened to them, and to discuss how their actions weren't appropriate. Staff will gently but firmly condemn the behaviour, not the pupil – otherwise they won't feel safe to open up about their own experiences.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1. The governing board

The governing board is responsible for reviewing and approving the written statement of behaviour principles (appendix 1). The governing board will also review this behaviour policy in conjunction with the headteacher and monitor the policy's effectiveness, holding the headteacher to account for its implementation.

5.2. The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for reviewing this behaviour policy in conjunction with the governing board, giving due consideration to the school's statement of behaviour principles (appendix 2). The headteacher will also approve this policy.

The headteacher will ensure that the school environment encourages positive behaviour and that staff deal effectively with poor behaviour, and will monitor how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are applied consistently.

5.3. Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Implementing the behaviour policy consistently
- Modelling positive behaviour
- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils
- Recording behaviour incidents
- The senior leadership team will support staff in responding to behaviour incidents.

5.4. Parents

Parents are expected to:

- Support their child in adhering to the pupil code of conduct
- Inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour
- Discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher or a member of the SLT promptly.

6. Pupil code of conduct

Pupils are expected to:

- Behave in an orderly and self-controlled way
- Show respect to members of staff and each other
- In class, make it possible for all pupils to learn
- Move quietly around the school
- Treat the school buildings and school property with respect
- Wear the correct uniform at all times
- Accept sanctions when given

- Refrain from behaving in a way that brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school
- Respect the rights of other children as described in the UNCRC

All of the above are also applicable during online learning.

We all have the right to:

- feel safe in our school in order to promote effective learning.
- work and learn together to the best of our ability.
- be treated with dignity and respect.
- access our rights as laid out in the UNCRC

7. Rewards and sanctions

7.1. List of rewards and sanctions

We encourage behaviour in a positive and constructive way. We feel that by highlighting and rewarding such behaviour, the children will be encouraged to adopt it.

Good behaviour is encouraged in the following ways:

On an individual basis by:

- Praise, verbal or written in front of peers
- Showing work to other adults
- Smiley faces, stickers or certificates
- Letters or phone calls home to parents
- Nominating children of the week who have shown significant effort and achievement in class.
- Golden Time. This means that children are allowed to choose what to do for a short period of time on a chosen day (Friday).
- At KS2 marbles in a jar can result in a Class treat (see below).
- Awarding of House Points.

On a class basis by:

- Marbles in a jar where the class teacher fills a jar to reward positive behaviour. When the jar is full, the whole class is rewarded. This may be a staged response e.g. quarter full extra Golden Time through to completely full resulting in a whole-class visit (e.g. iceskating trip)
- Awarding of class points for lining up after playtime.

The school may use one or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour:

- A verbal reprimand
- Sending the pupil out of the class
- Expecting work to be completed at home, or at break or lunchtime
- Reflection Time at break or lunchtime

- Referring the pupil to a senior member of staff
- · Letters or phone calls home to parents
- Agreeing a behaviour Target Card

See Appendix 1 for a full list of sanctions.

7.2. Off-site behaviour

Staff may discipline pupils for misbehaviour (including online) where they are:

- · Taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity
- Travelling to or from school
- Wearing school uniform
- In some other way identifiable as a pupil at the school

Even if none of the above conditions apply, pupils can be disciplined for misbehaviour at any time that:

- Could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- Poses a threat to another pupil or member of the public e.g. cyber bullying
- Could adversely affect the reputation of the school
- In all cases the member of staff may only discipline the pupil on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of the staff member.

7.3. Malicious allegations

Where a pupil makes an accusation against a member of staff and that accusation is shown to have been malicious, the headteacher will discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

Please refer to our safeguarding policy regarding procedures for dealing with allegations of abuse against staff, for more information on responding to allegations of abuse.

The headteacher will also consider the pastoral needs of staff accused of misconduct.

8. Behaviour management

We aim to:

- catch our children doing the right thing and acknowledge it publicly and privately
- build positive working environments in our classrooms and in our playground
- provide opportunities and success in all areas of the curriculum
- give regular encouragement and descriptive feedback through our reward systems.
- make our children feel special by holding special events and activities
- build positive relationships with parents/carers and children and our whole school community
- remind children of the school rules (Appendix 3)

8.1. Classroom management

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the classroom.

They will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages pupils to be engaged
- Display the Class Charter and refer to it when needed
- Develop a positive relationship with pupils, which may include:
 - Greeting pupils in the morning/at the start of lessons
 - Establishing clear routines
 - Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
 - Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
 - Concluding the day positively and starting the next day afresh
 - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
 - Using positive reinforcement

Class Charters:

Each class will devise their own class charter at the beginning of each school year. This should show how the class will:

- talk and communicate with each other
- learn together
- · move around the class
- treat each other. This covers strategies to help deal with verbal insults, racist & sexist comments and poor manners
- resolve problems
- behave safely
- demonstrate British Values.

To reinforce our rights and responsibilities, children are given opportunities to discuss them through Personal, Social and Health Education and Citizenship (PSHE & C), which includes Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning (SEAL), as well as Circle Time and Collective Worship.

8.2. Physical restraint

In some circumstances, staff may use reasonable force to restrain a pupil to prevent them:

- Causing disorder
- · Hurting themselves or others
- Damaging property

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded and reported to parents

Our school follows Camden Local Authority's Policy on physical intervention.

Camden's Core Statement on Physical Intervention

Physical intervention and restraint on pupils should only be used as a last resort, normally when de-escalation strategies have failed, and when there is a clear risk of serious harm to the pupil or others or serious damage to property or to deal with serious classroom disruption.

Decisions on when to use physical intervention is a matter of professional judgement and any intervention or restraint should be proportionate and reasonable in the context of the perceived risk and in the pupil's best interests. This would normally be after de-escalation strategies have failed. Should such an intervention be required the school should record the details, including any injury, and contact the parent/carer on the same day to explain the circumstances involved.

8.3. Confiscation

Any prohibited items (listed in section 3) found in pupils' possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to pupils.

We will also confiscate any item which is harmful or detrimental to school discipline. These items will be returned to pupils after discussion with senior leaders and parents, if appropriate.

Searching and screening pupils is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation.

8.4. Pupil support and children with SEND

The school recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent pupils with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to challenging behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the pupil. The school is required to make reasonable adjustments and to take into account the child's specific SEND and how this impacts on their behaviour on a day to day basis. The school's special educational needs co-ordinator will evaluate a pupil who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a pupil, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis. A referral to MASH for a Multi Agency assessment may be considered at this point if there is evidence that the child's behavior is as a result of significant risk factors within the family home. Eg. Domestic violence.

Some pupils may be more vulnerable to experiencing physical intervention and restraint due to their personal circumstances or because they have SEND.

Pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties may exhibit challenging behaviour or high levels of emotional distress and may be a risk to themselves or others.

Pupils with additional needs and/or SEND may exhibit challenging behaviour because of frustrations at not being able to communicate their difficulties or needs. These children are also more vulnerable to bullying.

Reasonable adjustments will have been made to ensure any policy on physical intervention and restraint does not disadvantage these pupils.

The specific needs of these pupils have been considered and that the school will tailor their approach accordingly to avoid discrimination against these pupils. This is likely to involve putting in place an individual plan in advance.

For children with exceptionally high needs as a result of their SEND, it may be necessary that daily physical intervention is part of the way in which the school meets that child's special educational needs. This intervention should always be the minimum level needed to support the child. These children will also have outside professionals such as Learning Support Teachers from the Behaviour Outreach Team and the school's Educational Psychologist supporting their learning and advising school staff on the best way of doing this. Should an increasing level of physical intervention be required for a child, it may become necessary for more specialised provision to be considered in order for that child's needs to be met more effectively.

9. Pupil transition

To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, pupils have transition sessions with their new teacher. In addition, staff members hold transition meetings and arrange form handover meetings where a child is transitioning both in and out of the school.

To ensure behaviour is continually monitored and the right support is in place, information related to pupil behaviour issues may be transferred to relevant staff at the start of the term or year. Information on behaviour issues may also be shared with new settings for those pupils transferring to other schools.

10. Training

Our staff are provided with training on managing behaviour, including proper use of restraint, as part of their induction process. (Team Teach) Staff also undergo regular refresher training.

Behaviour management will also form part of continuing professional development.

11. Monitoring arrangements

This behaviour policy will be reviewed by the headteacher and the full governing board every year. At each review, the policy will be approved by the headteacher.

The stages of behaviour and the written statement of behaviour principles (appendices 2/3) will be reviewed and approved by the full governing board every 3 years.

12. Links with other policies

This behaviour policy is linked to the following policies:

- Exclusions policy
- Physical Intervention policy
- Safeguarding and Child Protection policy
- Anti Bullying policy
